

John Stefaniuk

Thompson Dorfman Sweatman

Legal Update

ABSTRACT

Hear about the latest legal developments in the mining sector from John Stefaniuk, a partner at Thompson Dorfman Sweatman LLP with 30 years' experience in natural resource and environmental law. John will provide an update on key legislative developments and cases affecting the mining sector. Topics will include: the new federal Impact Assessment Act and its impacts on mine development; important case law developments on royalties and clean-up liability; the latest on Indigenous consultation cases.

BIOGRAPHY

John D. Stefaniuk, is a partner with over 25 years' experience in the areas of real property development law, natural resources and environmental law and energy, infrastructure projects and municipal law matters. He has particular experience in relation to contaminated sites, mining and mine rehabilitation, wind power development, natural resource development, environmental approvals and licensing, commercial real estate, leasing, financing and development, municipal approvals, taxation and assessment and business acquisitions. He appears regularly before government licensing bodies and administrative tribunals including municipal councils and provincial legislative committees in connection municipal, and property issues. John is a trained mediator and a roster member of the Canadian Centre for Environmental Arbitration and Mediation.

John is named in the Chambers Global Guide to the World's Leading Business Lawyers 2013 and among the "most highly regarded individuals" under Environmental Law in the Who's Who Legal: Canada 2017 Guide to the World's Leading Lawyers. He has been repeatedly named to the Lexpert®/American Lawyer Guide to the 500 Leading Lawyers in Canada and is listed in the Canadian Legal LEXPERT Directory under both Environmental Law and Property Development, and by Best Lawyers® under Environmental and Natural Resources law, among other recognitions.

CCMEC | Central Canada
Mineral Exploration Convention